3. DECLARATION

This certifies that the film submitted is an original work and that all application details are correct. I, the filmmaker, possess legal ownership rights over this film, and the Dandenong Ranges Community Cultural Centre (Burrinja) is not responsible for any copyright issues that may arise from the screening or further broadcast.

Should the application to the Hillside Film Festival 2010 be successful, I give Burrinja permission to screen the film (or images from the film) at the Hillside Film Festival (HFF), and for use in all promotional and publicity material via print, digital or broadcast mediums for the sole purpose of promoting the festival.

I also declare that, should the application be successful, I give permission to Burrinja to supply the film to festival partner Aurora Community Channel where, at their discretion, it may be broadcast in part or in its entirety nationally via Foxtel Digital and Austar Digital on the Aurora Community Channel.

In signing this form, I agree to all of the above.

5. SUBMISSION METHOD

To make things easier for filmmakers, the Hillside Film Festival now offers two submission methods for videos:

- Hardcopy: As a DVD, mailed together with this application. [Go to Section 4]
- Online: As a video uploaded by the submission deadline to the 'Hillside Film Festival' group on vimeo.com (see below for more information). [See below]

Submitting on vimeo.com

You must have a Vimeo account to be able to submit your video. Accounts are free, and support a wide range of video formats including High Definition. Should you wish for your video to remain private, Vimeo allows you to give only the Hillside Film Festival user permission to view the file. Videos must be uploaded to the 'Hillside Film Festival' Vimeo group by the submission deadline to be eligible for consideration. For more information, and to download instructions, visit www.vimeo.com/groups/hillsidefilmfestival.

Please note: If submitting videos online, application forms must still be submitted and entry fee paid by the submission deadline, or videos will not be considered.
